What's the Cause Wiki?

The Activate Good Cause Wiki is a collaborative information hub about issues local to the Triangle that can be addressed through volunteerism.

Why the Cause Wiki?

To be the most effective volunteers and community problem solvers we can be, understanding the issues our community faces is critical. Through the Triangle Cause Wiki, we hope to be a resource for folks hoping to learn more about issues right in our backyard and how they can take action to help!

What you'll do:

Anybody can be a virtual researcher or contributor to the Triangle Cause Wiki!

1. Pick a cause area you're passionate about! For example:
 - Animals
 - Children and Youth
 - Community Engagement
 - Disaster Relief
 - Education
 - Health and Medicine
 - Human Rights
 - Justice and Legal Issues
 - Persons with Disabilities
2. Use your research skills to seek out and collect trustworthy information about the issue.
 - Look for fact-based, objective studies or data published by nonprofit organizations, colleges and universities, government agencies, or other reputable sources
 - Full submission criteria here
3. Submit your findings and reference links to the Cause Wiki at <https://activategood.org/trianglecausewiki/submit/>
