CASE STUDY

IBM's commitment to corporate social responsibility aligns perfectly with Activate Good's mission to build stronger communities. By sponsoring Activate Good, IBM engages its employees in meaningful volunteer opportunities, driving real change in the Triangle. It's a chance to live out their values, inspire others, and make a lasting impact beyond the workplace.

"IBM is proud to have a strong history of volunteerism – in fact, our first CEO Thomas J. Watson declared a "duty to the community" as an imperative for IBMers in 1931. Partnering with Activate Good has helped us to continue that legacy in the Triangle area. The Activate Good team organizes impactful projects, allowing our employees to give back to the community while connecting with volunteers from other local companies."
